Catoctin Mountain Music and Dance Weekend

Who comes to Catoctin?

Couples, singles, families, young folk, old folk, and those in the middle all become part of the Catoctin community. Enjoy unplugged time with real people! That's the magic of the BFMS Catoctin Weekend.

Dancing to the Open Band

What do we do?

Campers lead activities. Past workshops included dance, instrumental, singing, crafts, yoga, juggling, and storytelling. Dance contra, square,

Yoga in the woods

English, and international dances Friday and Saturday night. Play with the Catoctin Open Band. Swim in the pool, hike up the Cunningham Falls, climb on the rocks, read a book.

Walk the 25 miles of hiking trails with scenic mountain vistas, listen to the birds, go fishing, swap Friday night potluck recipes, start a jam session.

What are the accommodations at Camp Misty Mount?

Historic log cabins built circa 1935 by the WPA with electric lighting (but no outlets). Modern bath houses with lots of water and indoor plumbing. Meals are family style in our large indoor dining/dance hall with vegetarian and omnivore options, prepared by campers under the guidance of an experienced chef. Snacks and hot and cold drinks are always available.

A typical cabin

How do you make it so affordable?

Catoctin is an all-volunteer weekend. Campers sign up for two short jobs when they arrive. Each job takes an hour or less. This is also a fun part of the weekend with good conversation and sometimes singing!

Fun in the kitchen

Work scholarships are available. For information about scholarships, e-mail catoctin@bfms.org.

Everyone is welcome!

You don't have to play an instrument, sing, or dance to have fun at the Catoctin Mountain Weekend. But bring your instrument if you have one—even if you don't think you're very good. Catoctin is a great place to jam with friendly musicians and to learn from more experienced players.

The Baltimore Folk Music Society is a 501(c)(3) organization funded by an operating grant from the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency dedicated to cultivating a vibrant cultural community where the arts thrive. Donations to BFMS beyond the basic camp fees are tax-deductible.
