

In conjunction with the National Storytelling Network

THE BALTIMORE FOLK MUSIC SOCIETY PRESENTS...

Tellabration!

A World-Wide Storytelling Event. This year's theme: GREEN

An evening of favorite stories featuring the Baltimore area's finest storytellers!

Saturday, November 22, 2008

7:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Family stories from 7:00 – 8:30

Adult stories at 8:30 – 11

Doors open at 6:30

Woodbrook Baptist Church, Towson

25 Stevenson Lane (near Charles Street), Towson

Three miles south of Beltway Exit 25. Wheelchair access please use south entrance.

Admission: $7 adult members of BFMS and affiliated organizations;

$9 non-member adults, $5 for children

Families: $16 members, $20 non-members

For more information, call Diane at 410-321-8419 (matchmaker2@comcast.net) or Barbara at 410-252-1438. Refreshments available.

Please bring canned goods for the Towson Assistance Center

BFMS Music and Dance Hotline: 410-366-0808 www.bfms.org

The Baltimore Folk Music Society is funded by an operating grant from the Maryland State Arts Council, an agency dedicated to cultivating a vibrant cultural community where the arts thrive. <http://www.msac.org>