Cathy Fink and Marcy Marxer

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer are talented singers, songwriters, instrumentalists, educators and record producers. The two-time Grammy® Award-winning duo is a formidable powerhouse of sound, with a repertoire of traditional and contemporary folk, old-time country and swing music. Their superb harmonies are backed by instrumental virtuosity on the acoustic and electric guitar, five-string banjo, mandolin, cello banjo, ukulele, percussion and many other instruments. Top it off with a witty stage presence and warm audience rapport and you've got a well loved music duo.

They've earned two Grammy® Awards, in 2004 for "cELLAbration: a Tribute to Ella Jenkins" and, in 2005, for "Bon Appétit!" In 2003, they were GRAMMY® nominated for their CD, "Postcards" in the Best Traditional Folk Album category. They received another GRAMMY® nomination in that category for "Banjo Talkin'". They produced and performed on Tom Paxton's GRAMMY® nominated "Live in the UK" CD and tour.

Cathy & Marcy have performed at hundreds of bluegrass and folk festivals, appeared on the "Weekend Today Show", "CBS Early Show", National Public Radio's "Morning Edition" and "All Things Considered". In their 25+ years performing together, the Washington Area Music Association has recognized Cathy & Marcy with over 50 WAMMY Awards for folk, bluegrass and children's music.

They have toured worldwide from Japan to New Zealand, Vancouver to New York and everywhere in between. Recent shows include the Old Songs Festival (NY), The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and Museum (OH), Levitt Pavilion Steel Stacks (PA), and Summerfolk (Ontario, Canada). American Voices Abroad chose Cathy & Marcy with fiddler Barbara Lamb to perform in China, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea and Vanuatu in 2013 for the U.S. Department of State.
