Fall 2013/Spring 2014 Concerts

October 04 2013, Friday - 8:30 PM - Deborah Rose

Deborah Rose is a Welsh singer/songwriter whose emotive, timeless voice has been described by folk legend Judy Collins as "... one of the finest I've ever heard". Deborah supported Ms. Collins on the UK leg of her world tour in 2011 after meeting her at the Isle of Wight Festival in 2009. Deborah's debut album, "Song Be My Soul" will be released this year. Her guiding light is to serve others by using her voice to reach out, inspire, and touch that place deep in the soul of her audiences. For Deborah music is a gift, and her joy is in sharing it. November 10 2013, Sunday - 4 PM - David and Ginger

Hildebrand present Baltimore in 1814: A Concert

David and Ginger Hildebrand present concerts and educational programs throughout the United States for museums, historical societies and sites, and at universities for graduate and undergraduate students. They appear frequently at Colonial Williamsburg and Mount Vernon. Their music is featured on movies and television documentaries, including the PBS series "Liberty! The American Revolution," "Rediscovering George Washington," the C-SPAN Series "American Presidents" and, most recently, the PBS feature-length film "Anthem". Read more at www.1812music.org/

February 15 2014, Saturday - 7:30 PM - Bob Shank

Bob Shank, founding member of the legendary bluegrass group Hickory Wind, has been a benchmark for American acoustic instrumentalists for more than three decades. Not bluegrass or old-time, or classical or ragtime, but all that and more. A sixth-generation West Virginian, Bob began his musical journey at age 5 with drums and piano and, by age 13, was firmly hooked on banjo, and then he mastered guitar, and then hammered dulcimer. Meld all that with an abiding rock and roll sensibility and you get one of today's most dynamic and versatile acoustic performers. Earlier this year Bob released his CD "Don't Worry about the Moon". March 1 2014, Saturday - 7:30 PM – Cathy Fink and Marcy Marxer

Two-Time Grammy® Award Winners Cathy Fink and Marcy Marxer are a formidable powerhouse of sound, with a repertoire of traditional and contemporary folk, old-time country and swing music. Their superb harmonies are backed by instrumental virtuosity on the acoustic & electric guitar, five-string banjo, mandolin, cello banjo, ukulele, percussion and many other instruments. Top it off with a witty stage presence and warm audience rapport and you've got a well loved music duo. Read more at www.cathymarcy.com

April 19 2014, Saturday - 7:30 PM – Hickory Wind Reunion

Hickory Wind played and recorded to critical acclaim from 1973 until 1978, touring and sharing the stage with such luminaries as John Prine, John Hartford, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, and Bonnie Raitt and releasing three highly regarded albums on the Flying Fish label. They disbanded after 5 years to pursue other interests and now, more than 30 years later, original members Bob Shank, Mark Walbridge, Sam Morgan, and Glen McCarthy have reunited and are touring once again. In December 2009, the band released an album of previously unreleased tracks from 1977 and 1978, "No Fish Today", on CD and as MP3s. Read more at www.cdbaby.com/artist/HickoryWind.
