Community Coffee House at Babcock Presbyterian Church

Greg Shupe and his band Men With Issues

Greg Shupe and his band, Men With Issues, bring an eclectic acoustic mix of original, folk, country, blues, bluegrass and swing music to the Community Coffeehouse on November 17. This event celebrates the release of Greg's newest CD, An Evening at Moosehead, which consists of songs chosen from the band's shows. Recorded live at Moosehead Studio, the CD captures the interplay of voice and instruments characteristic of the band's performances.

Greg currently resides on the Delmarva Peninsula, but lived in Baltimore for 25 years and was a fixture of the Baltimore folk music scene. He has performed at festivals, clubs, colleges, coffee houses, and benefits around the US as well as in Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain and the Caribbean. He will be joined by multi-instrumentalist Dennis Diamond (who produced the CD) on dobro, mandolin, and mandocello and Mark Ashby on stand-up bass. Expect a special guest or two to join in the show. The band will be performing songs from An Evening at Moosehead and from Greg's first CD, Midnight Train, along with a few trademark tunes and some brand new material.

Saturday, November 17th @ 7:30 PM

Doors open at 7:00 o'clock. Tickets $8 for BFMS & Babcock Members, $10 General Admission.
